A plan for continuous service of this kind has been approved by the Swedish telegraph administration and the Abo chamber of commerce, according to a report to Secretary of Commerce Hoover through the consular service from Consul Leslie A. Davis at Telsingfors, Finland.

"Let
it
Rain"

"You and I need never worry about Wash Day weather—for we can let the Manhattan Laundry representative call for our family bundle.

We can't order weather to suit us, and calling the Manhattan is the one way to foil the weather man. In rain or sunshine the result is always the same—an orderly tidy bundle of fresh cleanliness. And everything is handled so carefully!

For safety send your clothes to the Manhattan."

The Clothes get the wash."
